

This Book

shows with argument, proof, and conclusive evidence how far the terrorist and extremist groups have distorted the meanings of the Scripture, decontextualized them, played with words to add unintended meanings to them.

It also makes it clear that the attempt by the extremist groups to label our faithful societies with this concept of Jahiliyyah (ignorance), is an evident error which is answered and refuted in form and content. Likewise, labeling themselves with the term “Awakening” is a more grievous error and more heinous fallacy.

It also exposes the fact that these groups falsify the facts, and shows the dangers of intellectual poisoning, and highlights the threats caused by the new hypocrites, the hesitant, and the hirelings of the Brotherhood. It emphasizes the sanctity of blood, honors, and properties, as well as the inevitability of confronting the people of evil to protect our societies against extremism, the danger of the hirelings, and treason.
